10 IN RE: CASE No. 10-12371
11 GUILLERMINA CANELA, CHAPTER 13
12 Debtor. / OBJECTION TO CONFIRMATION
13 OF CHAPTER 13 PLAN
Date: September 20, 2010
14 Time: 1:30 p.m.
Place: 99 South E St.
15 Santa Rosa, CA

17 Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC, by and through counsel, 18 hereby objects to confirmation of Debtor's Chapter 13 Plan and 19 represents:

20 FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

21 1. Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC holds a valid and 22 perfected security interest in real property located at 7155 23 Gravenstein Highway, Cotati, California (hereinafter the "Real 24 Property").

25 2. The security interest secures a principal indebtedness in 26 the amount of $233,733.00 as evidenced by the Promissory Note and 27 the Deed of Trust. Pursuant to the terms of the Promissory Note, 28 Jesus and Elida Lopez are required to tender monthly payments to 1 Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC in the amount of $1,947.78. The 2 loan is all due on November 13, 2012. As of July 27, 2010, the 3 total amount due under the Note was $286,119.11.

4 3. Jesus and Elida Lopez failed to make the monthly payment
5 required under the Note and Deed of Trust for the months of January, 6 2009 through the present. The total amount required to be paid in 7 order to reinstate the loan is in excess of $52,280.24.

8 4. Without the knowledge or consent of Advanced Hyperbaric 9 Recovery, LLC, Jesus and Elida Lopez transferred title to the Real 10 Property to Debtor and another individual.

11 5. On January 22, 2010, Jesus and Elida Lopez commenced a 12 Bankruptcy Proceeding, Case No. 10-10194. Immediately after 13 Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC obtained relief from stay, the 14 case was converted to Chapter 13. Jesus and Elida Lopez proposed a 15 Plan that impermissibly modified the secured claim of Advanced 16 Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC and Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC 17 objected to confirmation. Jesus and Elida Lopez then amended the 18 Plan to provide for surrender of the Real Property.

19 6. The instant case was filed on June 24, 2010 by Debtor on 20 the eve of Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC's scheduled trustee's 21 sale of the Real Property.

22 7. Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC filed a Motion for Relief 23 from Stay on June 30, 2010. After a hearing on July 22, 2010, the 24 Motion was granted and the Section 362 Stay was lifted. However, 25 the Court stayed foreclosure so long as (a) Debtor made a regular 26 payment by noon on July 26, 2010 and continued making regular 27 payments every 30-days thereafter; and (b) a plan is confirmed in 28 120-days. The Order on Motion for Relief From Stay forces Advanced

1 Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC to accept payments from Debtor on account
2 of a contract that Debtor is not a party to. [Docket No. 16].

3 8. The instant case is not Debtor's first Bankruptcy. On 4 October 22, 2009, Debtor filed a Chapter 7 proceeding, Case No. 09-5 13469. The Order Discharging Debtor was entered on January 26, 6 2010, four-days after Jesus and Elida Lopez filed their voluntary 7 petition for relief.

8 9. Debtor scheduled no unsecured claims in the instant case;
9 in all likelihood because her debts were discharged in Case No. 09-10 13469 and no new debts were incurred since then. The only secured 11 debts scheduled by Debtor are the claim of Advanced Hyperbaric 12 Recovery, LLC and the Sonoma County Tax Collector, both of which 13 relate to the Real Property. There can be no doubt that the instant 14 case was filed for the sole purpose of preventing Advanced 15 Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC from foreclosing on the Real Property.

16 10. Debtor's Schedules indicate that she is a "self-employed" 17 and is a "business woman," although Schedule I fails to identify 18 neither the address of employment nor how long Debtor has been 19 employed. Schedule I states that Debtor earns $2,500 in regular 20 income from operation of business but Question 18 in the Statement 21 of Financial Affairs indicates that "Guillermína Canela Home 22 Daycare" closed in 2009 but that Debtor is "seeking to re-open".

23 11. Debtor's Chapter 13 Plan proposes the curing of pre-24 petition arrears, in the amount of $45,188.57, over the 60-month 25 plan term. It also provides for contemporaneous payments to 26 Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC of the payment required by the 27 Note and Deed of Trust executed by Jesus and Elida Lopez. The Plan 28 also provides for the curing of arrears owed to the Sonoma County

1 Tax Collector, but at 0% per annum.

2 DISCUSSION

3 Debtor's Chapter 13 plan cannot be confirmed:

4 I. THE DEBTOR LACKED GOOD FAITH IN FILING THE CASE AND IS LACKING
5 GOOD FAITH IN PROPOSING THE PLAN.

6 The transfer of title to the Real Property to Debtor, the 7 serial bankruptcy filings by Debtor and Jesus and Elida Lopez and 8 the complete failure to service the debt owed to Advanced Hyperbaric 9 Recovery, LLC until absolutely necessary constitutes a coordinated 10 effort by Debtor and Jesus and Elida Lopez to improperly use the 11 automatic stay to the detriment of Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, 12 LLC. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(4).

13 The same Attorney, Evan M. Livingstone, represented all of 14 above-named individuals in all of the above-described cases. The 15 timing of the filing of each case, as well as the conversion of 16 Jesus and Elida Lopez's case from Chapter 7 to Chapter 13 precisely 17 coincided with Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC's efforts to 18 foreclose on its collateral. As soon as the automatic stay expired 19 on one front, these individuals would make a brazen procedural 20 maneuver to effectuate the stay elsewhere. Despite all of the 21 maneuvering, no payment was made to Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, 22 LLC until the last moment before expiration of the deadline imposed 23 by the Order on Motion for Relief From Stay. [Docket No. 16].

24 Debtor is not a party to the contract entered into between 25 Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC and Jesus and Elida Lopez and it 26 is inequitable to force Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC into any 27 sort of relationship with Debtor.

28 Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC is entitled to condition its

1 decision to finance a transaction on a thorough investigation into 2 a borrower's credit-worthiness. The Debtor's Plan seeks to deprive 3 Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC of this entitlement and force it 4 to provide financing to her without so much as a loan application.

5 Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC elected to finance Jesus and 6 Elida Lopez's purchase of the Real Property. Jesus and Elida Lopez 7 defaulted on the obligation, by both failing to make the required 8 payments for more than 18 months and transferring title to a 9 stranger without the consent of Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC.
10 They then surrendered the Real Property in their Bankruptcy which 11 should have been the end of things. However, it was not the end 12 because Debtor commenced the instant case to effectuate the 13 automatic stay. The only reason the filing effectuated the stay is 14 because, contrary to the terms of the Note, Jesus and Elida Lopez 15 transferred legal title to Debtor.

16 Debtor lacked good faith in commencing this case and is lacking
17 good faith in proposing the Plan because Chapter 13 is not intended 18 to turn a bargained-for real property transaction into a game of 19 musical chairs. Neither is it meant to enable a group of 20 individuals to engage in a series of coordinated filings to take 21 advantage of the provisions of Section 362. Confirmation should be 22 denied. 11 U.S.C. §§ 1325(a)(3)&(7).

23 II. THE PLAN FAILS TO PROVIDE FOR FULL PAYMENT OF ADVANCED 24 HYPERBARIC RECOVERY, LLC'S CLAIM.

25 When a balloon payment comes due during a Chapter 13 Plan, 26 Section 1322 allows a Debtor to modify the claim and pay the claim 27 over the life of the plan pursuant to Section 1325(a)(5). 11 U.S.C.
28 §§ 1322(b)(2), (b)(3)&(c)(2), 1325(a)(5). In the present case, the

1 Plan has no provision providing for the full payment of Advanced 2 Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC's claim and, as such, it violates Section 3 1325(a)(5). The Plan cannot be confirmed unless it is amended to 4 provide for full repayment of Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC's 5 claim over the life of the Plan.

6 III. THE PLAN IS NOT FEASIBLE.

7 Although Debtor projects income of $4,700.00 on Schedule I, the 8 Statement of Financial Affairs indicates that her child care 9 business is not currently operating so it is questionable whether 10 the income actually exists. Schedule I also indicates that Debtor 11 will receive "contributions from co-owners." Presumably the "co-12 owners" are Jesus and Elida Lopez whose First Amended Plan, in Case 13 No. 10-10194, provides for surrender of the Real Property. The 14 logical conclusion is that Debtor intends to fund her Plan - at 15 least in part - from Jesus and Elida Lopez's improper post-petition 16 transfers. The projected $800 "contribution from daughter" is also 17 questionable.

18 Further, as mentioned above, Debtor's Plan must provide for the 19 full payment of Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC's claim over the 20 life of the Plan. Although the Plan is defective for failure to 21 include such a provision, the reality is that such a provision would 22 render the Plan even less feasible. The reason is because Debtor 23 would be required to either pay the claim in a single lump sum 24 installment (e.g. sale or refinance) or in equal monthly 25 installments. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 1322(d), 1325(a)(5)(B)(iii).

26 There is no conceivable way that Debtor - an unemployed day 27 care operator, who lost 3 properties to foreclosure in the last few 28 years, who is in her second bankruptcy case in the last year and who

1 intends to fund her Plan with Jesus and Elida Lopez's improper post-2 petition transfers - could ever demonstrate the feasibility of 3 paying off Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC's claim, in full, over 4 the next five-years. The Plan is not feasible and it cannot be 5 confirmed. 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(6).

6 The lack of feasibility is further demonstrated by the fact
7 that all payments coming due post-petition have not been paid. A 8 stay remains in effect solely because of Debtor making payment 9 pursuant to the Order on Motion for Relief From Stay. The timing of 10 payments required by the Order, however, does not coincide with the 11 timing of payments required by the Note. As a result, post-petition 12 late fees are being incurred which remain unpaid.

13 IV. THE PLAN FAILS TO CURE THE ENTIRETY OF PRE-PETITION ARREARS.

14 As set forth in Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC's Proof of 15 Claim, the total amount of pre-petition arrears is $50,280.24.
16 However, the Plan only provides for the curing of arrears in the 17 amount of $45,188.57. Amongst other things, in order to confirm a 18 Plan, the Debtor's Plan must cure the entirety of pre-petition 19 arrears. The Plan fails to do so and so it cannot be confirmed. 11 20 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(5).

21 V. THE PLAN FAILS TO PAY THE REDEMPTION PENALTY RATE OF INTEREST 22 ON THE CLAIM OF THE SONOMA COUNTY TAX COLLECTOR'S CLAIM.

23 The penalty rate on secured tax roll arrears is 18% per annum.
24 However, the Debtor's Plan inexplicably pays 0% on the claim of the 25 Sonoma County Tax Collector. Unless the redemption penalty rate of 26 interest is paid, Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC will be held 27 responsible should it ultimately foreclose upon the Real Property.
28 The Plan is not confirmable because it fails to pay the present

1 value of the claim of the Sonoma County Tax Collector. 11 U.S.C. §
2 511; Cal. Rev. & Tax. Code § 4103.¹

3 WHEREFORE, Advanced Hyperbaric Recovery, LLC prays for an 4 order denying confirmation of the Debtor's Chapter 13 Plan, and for 5 such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

6 Respectfully submitted,

7 Dated: 8/17/10
